DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 8/13/2007 has been entered.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  1. Claim 25, drawn to a substrate coated with titanium oxide obtained by thermal decomposition of titanium precursors, classified in class 428, subclass 432.
  2. Claim 26, drawn to a substrate coated with titanium oxide and a thin alkali metal barrier layer, classified in class 428, subclass 699.
  3. Claim 27, drawn to a substrate coated with titanium oxide and having a contact angle with water below 5 after exposure to luminous rays, classified in class 428, subclass 601.
  4. Claim 28, drawn to a substrate coated with titanium oxide and having a RMS rugosity between 2 and 20 nm, classified in class 428, subclass 687.
  5. Claims 29 and 30, drawn to a substrate coated with titanium oxide having a thickness between 10 and 80 nm, classified in class 428, subclass 213.

6. Claims 34 and 35, drawn to a substrate coated with titanium oxide and at least one oxide with a lower refractive index than titanium oxide, classified in class 428, subclass 701.
7. Claims 36 and 37, drawn to a substrate coated with titanium oxide and at least one electrically conductive layer, classified in class 428, subclass 931.
8. Claim 38, drawn to an electrically controlled variable absorption glazing comprising a substrate coated with titanium oxide, classified in class 359, subclass 265.
9. Claim 39, drawn to a windshield comprising a substrate coated with titanium oxide, classified in class 428, subclass 426.
10. Claims 44 and 45, drawn to a substrate coated with titanium oxide doped by at least one metal, classified in class 428, subclass 697.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

3. Inventions of Groups 1-10 are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination (double glazing or laminated type, for example see page 11, lines 18-30).

The subcombinations are distinct if they do not overlap in scope and are not obvious variants, and if it is shown that at least one subcombination is separately usable. In the instant case, each of subcombinations 1-10 has separate utility such as a single glazing or a non-laminated type glazing for a vehicle or building window. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

4. The examiner has required restriction between subcombinations usable together. Where applicant elects a subcombination and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

5. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification and because the inventions require a completely different key word search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.
7. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
8. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
